

Now is MISKATONIC UNIVERSITY 3.3, affectionately known as May's Folly. It records certain games which only a madman (or a Mad Monk) would have started in the first place. It is edited by Dave May, 7370 Scribble Ave., La Jolla CA 92037. Phone is (714) 434-7435 (between 6 and 9 pm PST ONLY). Member, NFFFG Diplomacy Division. Game fee is $6 ($5 for regular members of the NFFFG Games Bureau).

#1966AR

...Revisited

The supply center chart for this game had two errors. Austria, 1813, had 16 centers (and units). Russia, 1814, had 5 centers.

#1966BE

...Reopened

Summer 1813: Several players apparently wish this game to continue. Bob Keathley has had a broken back and moved to a new job, and would much prefer to continue. Therefore, I will call for Fall 1813 moves. Charles Turner is requested to submit moves for Russia, his own country, and for England, in case Mike Childers does not respond. Current positions:

AUSTRIA (Bailey): A Vie, A Gal, A Bud, F Ven, A Tyr, A Cas.

ENGLAND (Childers): A Bre, A Bur, A Bel, F Wes, F Naf, F Mid, F Iri, F Eng.

RUSSIA (Turner): F Bot, F StP(so).

TURKEY (Keathley): F Ank, A Con, A Smy, F Por, F Aeg, A Sev, F Spa(so), A Mar, F Iro, F Gre, A Tri, A Rum, F Ion, A War, A Mos.

Note: Turkey owns 17 supply centers. He was unable to build 1 last Winter, and 1 was annihilated (A Ven, House Rule 12) in Spring 1813. Serbia is still unowned. FALL 1813 MOVES are due Thursday 23 April 1970.

#1967G

...Cancelled

No protests over this game were received, so it is cancelled. Charles Turner, the only original player in this game, and the only one to submit moves right to the end, will receive a free slot in the new game being opened. The game is declared a draw between France, Russia, and Turkey.

New Game

McL. now has a game open, in which Charles Turner is registered. This will be a 7-man game or a Calhauer 5-man game, depending on what you wish. Please indicate which game you prefer. Also indicate if you will not play in one or the other--I will assume you will play in either unless you indicate otherwise. Only paid entries will be counted in determining what kind of game it will be (Turner is counted as 1, so let me know what you wish, Charlie). Money will be refunded if you do not play in the game, of course. Send entries to address above, not to San Diego. Also, checks payable to David May, not to Rod Walker or Pandemonium Press.
